THE NETHERLANDS

Amsterdam, The Netherlands

A private canal cruise offers a unique firsthand look at the integral role waterways have played for centuries in the life of this city. Amsterdam's canal district, a UNESCO World Heritage site ringed by concentric canals and lined with 16th- and 17th-century merchant row houses, charming houseboats and world-renowned museums, is brimming with history and artistic wealth. What began as a simple fishing village developed into the thriving economic center of the world in the 17th century and produced master artists including Rembrandt and Vincent van Gogh.

Hoorn

Once a prominent harbor, Hoorn became one of Holland's most important centers of trade during the Golden Age in the 17th century as the home of the Dutch East India Company, the first multinational corporation in the world. Stroll along the charming, lively harbor and admire the landmark Hoofdtoren tower, one of the city's last preserved defenses dating to the 16th century.

Giethoorn

With four miles of canals and over 150 bridges, the beautiful town of Giethoorn is affectionately

The River Meuse flows through ancient Maastricht, the southernmost city in The Netherlands, rich in history dating back to the Romans in the first century B.C.

Ghent's medieval harbor, Graslei is known for its beautifully intricate, well-preserved guildhall façades.

known as the “Venice of The Netherlands.”

No traditional roads can be found in this village; residents and visitors commute by boat, by bicycle or on foot. Board a small boat for a private tour along the village's serene waterways.

Kampen

The old Hanseatic League city of Kampen, located on the left bank of the River IJssel, is an idyllic Dutch town of color and charm and home to one of the best-preserved old town centers in The Netherlands. See the remains of the ancient city walls including three gates that are still standing, along with the Old Town Hall and the 17th-century New Tower. In the Gothic Bovenkerk (church), listen to the intonation of its impressive, 18th-century Hinsz organ with more than 3000 pipes during a private, specially arranged concert.

Kröller-Müller Museum

Located in the picturesque De Hoge Veluwe, The Netherlands' largest national park, the world-class Kröller-Müller Museum is lauded for its chronological collection of Van Gogh's masterpieces. The museum also exhibits works by Pablo Picasso, Pierre-Auguste Renoir and Édouard Manet, as well as captivating late 19th- to 21st-century sculptures by Auguste Rodin, Henry Moore and Jean Debuffet displayed in its unique 60-acre garden.

Nijmegen

Scenic Nijmegen is widely regarded the oldest city in The Netherlands and was settled in the first century B.C. Downtown, the Valkhof Hill features an impressive ninth-century Carolingian chapel overlooking the River Waal. Among the well-preserved historic buildings are the 15th-century town hall and Latin school, the 16th-century, Renaissance-style Waag (weighing hall) and a series of quaint 17th-century houses.

Maastricht

Founded by the Romans, the fabled city of Maastricht is today an epicenter of history, art and culture. Enjoy a walking tour of the historic city center—the oldest in the Netherlands—and admire its outstanding monuments—the towering Basilica of Our Lady, resembling a high-walled castle, was built in one of Maastricht's picturesque cobblestone town squares in the year 1000—dignified architecture, and stand on the medieval 13th century city wall looking down across the River Meuse at the scenic city below. Just outside of Maastricht in Margarten, walk through The Netherlands American Cemetery, one of the largest American military cemeteries in Europe honoring the allied operations during World War II.

Antwerp, Belgium

The Old Town of Antwerp preserves its charming Flemish culture in its labyrinth of squares and narrow passages that lead into the spectacular Grote Markt, where beautifully preserved guildhalls once bustled with Antwerp's 16th-century merchants and tradesmen. In the Cathedral of Our Lady, the pride of Belgium featuring a remarkable 47-bell carillon and soaring 401-foot, delicately ornamented spire, you will see the 17th-century Baroque masterpieces of the city's native son, Peter Paul Rubens, including paintings of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary, The Raising of the Cross and The Descent from the Cross.

DELTA WORKS OPTIONAL EXCURSION: See one of the most impressive feats of hydraulic engineering in the world, Delta Works. This complex system was built to protect the southwestern Netherlands from the encroaching North Sea and to reclaim polder lands.

Ghent

The rich history and commercial heritage of Ghent are reflected in the splendid 12th- to 17th-century guildhalls lining the quay. In St. Bavo's Cathedral, see the Van Eyck brothers' magnificent polyptych, the altarpiece of the Adoration of the Mystical Lamb.

Bruges

The timeless, fairytale city of Bruges is a UNESCO World Heritage site of treasured architecture, virtually untouched since the 15th century and one of the best-preserved medieval cities in Europe. It is built around a double ring of picturesque canals connected by charming arched foot bridges and is world-renowned for its delectable, hand-crafted chocolates. Enjoy a walking tour from the Market Square to the extraordinary Gothic Chapel of the Holy Blood, seeing Bruges' magnificent, deftly crafted stone guildhalls and opulent churches dating back to medieval times.

The quaint, picturesque town of Giethoorn boasts over four miles of canals and no traditional roads.

Standard Stateroom

Keukenhof Gardens

A brilliant and breathtaking tapestry of colors and fragrance when in full bloom, the gardens of Keukenhof are affectionately known as the Garden of Europe. Our program has been planned during the height of Holland's spectacular spring flower season, when more than seven million flowers are expected to be in bloom across this 79-acre wooded park in a dazzling display of color.

"Keukenhof" translates to "kitchen garden" and was inspired by the early 15th-century Countess Jacoba of Bavaria, who resided in a nearby castle and tended an herb garden on this site. Today, Keukenhof Gardens is an international showcase for the Dutch floriculture industry with an emphasis on flower bulbs. Exhibitors feature more than 1000 varieties of their tulips, along with daffodils, hyacinths, orchids, roses, carnations, irises and lilies—and new strains of tulips are cultivated every year. This idyllic setting is meticulously planted and landscaped, complete with tranquil ponds, gentle, flowing streams and winding, tree-shaded paths.
