Traveling Aggies

Howdy, Ags!

Few places on earth are as lovely, captivating and historically fascinating as the glorious country of France, with its ancient past and endless charm and beauty. Join us for this unforgettable 12-day, custom-designed itinerary along three storied rivers of France—the Rhône, the Saône and the Seine—aboard exclusively chartered deluxe Amadeus Fleet river ships for a unique perspective on over 2,000 years of history, culture, cuisine and architecture.

Along the banks of these three lifelines of France, where the past blends seamlessly with the present, you will gain an outstanding overview of French culture. From sun-drenched Marseilles on France's southern Mediterranean coast to the coeur de la pays (heart of the country) in the world-class city of Paris to the historic D-Day beaches of Normandy, enjoy all the richness and allure that France has to offer. Experience seven UNESCO World Heritage sites as you cruise to several of the most beloved French locales—Arles, Avignon, Lyon, Giverny and Rouen—and explore the rich history, art and culture among ancient Roman monuments, medieval châteaux, the lavender fields of Provence, Paris' distinctive arrondissements and majestic Haussmann architecture, and the historic, pastoral landscapes of Normandy and Brittany. Visit Monet's home and gardens in Giverny, the medieval city of Rouen with its imposing Gothic cathedral and a Beaujolais vineyard for a tasting of the region's famous wines.

Plan to spend two days in the Provençal warmth of Marseilles, Aix-en-Provence and Cassis on the Pre-Cruise Option and discover groundbreaking architecture, fabulous masterpieces and a charming seaside village.

Join us and live la belle vie along France's fabled rivers during this comprehensive, exclusive travel program while experiencing the breadth of this great country. With all accommodations, meals and excursions included, it is an excellent value and sure to sell out quickly. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are available.

TOUTES LES GLOIRES DE LA FRANCE

On the façade of the royal Palace of Versailles just outside of Paris is the inscription “A Toutes les Gloires de la France.” In 1837, when King Louis-Philippe dedicated its galleries to “all the glories of France,” the most outstanding minds and figures of the arts, literature, science and politics of the time were in attendance—Victor Hugo, Honoré de Balzac, Alexandre Dumas, Eugène Delacroix—to celebrate the extraordinary contributions the French have made to the Western world.

Today, all the glories of France lie in wait for your discovery on medieval bridges spanning the Rhône, in abundant Beaujolais vineyards, in the lively enchanting quarters of Paris, in Monet’s canvases hung at Giverny, in the quiet dignity of the beaches of Normandy and in the stained-glass windows of Rouen’s grand cathedral, where great history and beauty have been intertwined for centuries. Experience firsthand the remarkable achievements in fine art, cuisine, fashion, architecture, literature, cinema and joie de vivre that have made France so influential across the globe, shaping the world we live in today.

Marseilles, France/Arles
Friday, May 20

Arrive in the sunny city of Marseilles and transfer through the bucolic Provençal countryside to the lovely city of Arles. Embark the deluxe m.s. AMADEUS SYMPHONY and enjoy the Captain’s Welcome Reception before dinner. The ship overnights in Arles.

Arles
Saturday, May 21

Few places on Earth can match the distinctive joie de vivre of Arles. This archetypal Provençal city is home to one of the world’s most majestic Roman monuments—the magnificently restored 20,000-spectator Amphitheater, built in the first century B.C. Visit Arles’ 12th-century Cathedral of St. Trophime with its fascinating Last Judgment-themed portal, a superb example of Romanesque sculpture and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Nearby, the subject of Vincent van Gogh’s 1888 painting, The Café Terrace at Night, is still open for business on the Place du Forum.

Avignon
Sunday, May 22

The center of Western Christendom from 1309, when Pope Clement V moved the papal capital here until the Great Schism with Rome (1378), Avignon, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is an ancient city built on the banks of the Rhône. On a walking tour, visit the grandiose Palais des Papes (Papal Palace), the largest château-fort built in Europe during the Gothic era and the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age. Walk to the splendid Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Domes, a hilltop park offering spectacular panoramic views of the Rhône River Valley. At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of one of the finest surviving examples of medieval fortifications, the Pont St-Bénézet (Pont d’Avignon), the only bridge built across the Rhône during the Middle Ages. You can stroll along the city’s well-preserved, 14th-century ramparts, as the afternoon and evening are at leisure.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape for Orange and Pont du Gard/Saint-Étienne des Sorts
Monday, May 23

Traverse the beautiful French countryside, passing vibrantly hued stucco houses accented by blue shutters, en route to the Roman city of Orange and its awe-inspiring UNESCO World Heritage sites. Visit the well-preserved ancient Roman Theater, still hosting performances today, and see the Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century as a tribute to Augustus and a symbol of Roman imperial glory.

Visit the UNESCO World Heritage site Pont du Gard, an exquisitely built 2000-year-old Roman aqueduct that once Châtelaine Blandine de Sonis will greet you upon arrival and guide your private tour through her home. Experience a private, specially arranged performance of fortepiano music by an internationally recognized pianist living in Burgundy, and enjoy a wine tasting with local canapés.

Rejoin the ship in Trévoux this evening and cruise into Lyon, just in time to see the city lights come flickering to life—a majestic view as you cruise the Saône River.

Lyon/Paris Wednesday, May 25

Disembark and transfer to Lyon's train station to board one of France's greatest supplied over nine million gallons of water daily to the city of Nîmes and was constructed of stones made to fit together seamlessly without mortar, cleverly using arches to support the weight.

Reboard the ship in Saint-Étienne-des-Sorts and cruise the Rhône River.

Lyon/Beaujolais/Trévoux Tuesday, May 24

Arrive in Lyon this morning, a UNESCO World Heritage site located at the confluence of the Rhône and Saône Rivers. From lofty Fourvière Hill (Praying Hill), see the ornate 19th-century Basilica of Notre Dame and the restored Vieux (old) Lyon, where well-preserved Gothic and Renaissance mansions attest to the wealth of Lyon's long-standing silk industry. Walk through the ancient quarter of St. Jean and see the unique, often hidden traboules—narrow, covered pedestrian passageways.

This afternoon, continue to the lovely vineyards of Beaujolais, the "land of the golden stones," from which France's youngest and fruitiest wines originate. This internationally acclaimed wine region, located along the banks of the Saône River, has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d'Or, Côte Châlonnaise and Mâconnais combined. Travel into the verdant heart of Beaujolais to the 10th-century Château de Montmelas.

Arles' Romanesque architecture reflects its history as a vital port of call on the Roman road from Italy to Spain.

technological achievements, the high-speed TGV (Train à Grande Vitesse), which can reach speeds up to 200 miles per hour.

Arrive in magnificent Paris, the "City of Light" and an artful mélange of rich history. Transfer to the m.s. AMADEUS DIAMOND and enjoy lunch on board the ship. During a panoramic city tour, admire Paris' most legendary monuments and sites—the soaring grace of the Eiffel Tower, built for the Universal Exhibition of 1889; imposing Notre Dame cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage site; and the bustling Place de la Concorde.

Plan to attend the Captain's Welcome Reception onboard this evening. The ship is docked overnight in Paris.

Arromanches played a crucial role in the months following D-Day. Made into a temporary port, Mulberry Harbor was towed from Britain and assembled to allow equipment and reinforcements to be brought ashore by Allied forces.

The 12th-century Pont d'Avignon, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is a famous medieval bridge comprised of 22 stone arches that once spanned the Rhône River, and is now an iconic landmark in the city of Avignon.

Paris/Auvers-sur-Oise/Le Pecq Thursday, May 26

What began as a small, isolated Celtic farming settlement on an island in the River Seine grew into one of the great cosmopolitan cities of the world, becoming the French capital that today is distinguished by its classic, purely Parisian atmosphere. Enjoy a walking tour of Saint-Germain-des-Près, a lively, Left Bank quartier (neighborhood) and an important 17th-century intellectual center where the oldest church in Paris, L'Eglise Saint-Germain-des-Prés, dates from the sixth century. See the famous Café de Flore and Les Deux Magots, two of the most prestigious coffee houses in Paris. Enjoy free time to explore on your own in this charming, typically Parisian neighborhood.

This afternoon, just outside of Paris, visit the picturesque traditional French village of Auvers-sur-Oise, a favorite subject of Impressionist painter Vincent van Gogh where he painted numerous beautiful works, such as Village Street in Auvers, The Town Hall at Auvers and The Church at Auvers, all in 1890.

Vernon for Giverny/ Les Andelys/Rouen Friday, May 27

Visit the lovely town of Giverny to explore Impressionist painter Claude Monet's residence, largely unchanged since 1926, and stroll through his exceptional Japanese-style gardens, which feature prominently in many of his works, most notably his Water Lillies masterpieces (1920-1926). Visit the Musée des Impressionismes, featuring the history and different forms of Impressionism.

This afternoon, reboard the ship in the quaint village of Les Andelys for lunch and then transfer to Rouen, the historic capital of Normandy. A former Roman city, Rouen rose to prominence in the 10th century under the reign of the first Duke of Normandy. It was here that the first bridge was built across the Seine. On a walking tour through this classic Norman city, admire the imposing 13th-century Cathedral of Notre Dame, one of the loveliest Gothic edifices in France and a favorite subject of Monet's. In the Vieux Marché (Old Market), see the Place St-Marc where Joan of Arc was martyred, and the magnificent 16th-century stained-glass windows of the heroine's namesake cathedral, the Church of Ste-Jeanne-d'Arc. Once belonging to the Church of St. Vincent, these stunning windows were hidden away for safe keeping during World War II, rediscovered then built into the Church of Ste-Jeanne-d'Arc to be admired today.

Caudebec-en-Caux/Honfleur Saturday, May 28

The small, peaceful town of Caudebec-en-Caux is nestled along the banks of the Seine estuary. Walk through the nearby 12th-century Abbey of St. Georges de Boscherville, known for its beautiful gardens, and visit the colossal ruins of the Jumièges Abbey, founded in 654 by Saint Philibert and consecrated in 1067 with William the Conqueror in attendance.

This afternoon, transfer to the medieval town of Honfleur and enjoy a walking tour featuring the picturesque harbor that influenced many Impressionist painters including Eugène Boudin and Claude Monet.

This evening, hear a fascinating lecture on the history of the D-Day landings and the Normandy Campaign of World War II by esteemed local guide, Nigel Stewart, on board the ship, in preparation for your visit to the beaches.

Caudebec-en-Caux for the Beaches of Normandy Sunday, May 29

Travel through the scenic countryside to the historic D-Day beaches of Normandy. Walk where Allied forces landed on June 6, 1944, and contemplate the Home and studio to Impressionist Claude Monet, the gardens of Giverny feature prominently in his works.

M.S. AMADEUS DIAMOND

M.S. AMADEUS DIAMOND

As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, bites from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a trip participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, sightseeing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation without prior notice. Gohagan is not responsible therefor and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel a trip (or an option) for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visas and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the "Included Features" section of the brochure; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned in the "Included Features" section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. Please contact your airline(s) for the most current luggage allowance policy.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit, by October 30, 2015.
