YOUR INDACT ONTEXAS A&M

he founding charter of 1925 stated that The Association of Former Students is formed for "the support of benevolent, charitable and educational undertakings by extending financial and other aid to students of Texas A&M University; by promoting social, literary and scientific pursuits; by perpetuating and strengthening the ties of affection and esteem formed in university or college days; by promoting the interests and welfare of Texas A&M University and education generally in the State of Texas."

When you give to The Association, you are combining your gift with the power of tens of thousands of donors worldwide. Those funds ensure that the Aggie Spirit will be nurtured through programs like Aggie Ring Day and New Student Orientation; preserved through traditions such as Aggie Muster; and shared by Aggies everywhere through 242 A&M Clubs in every corner of the world. Indeed, the Aggie Network has a positive influence on every student who walks the Texas A&M campus.

The Association of Former Students

The Association of Former Students traces its origin to the Ex-Cadets Association formed in 1879 and later to the A&M Alumni Association and Alpha Phi Fraternity. In 1919, a coalition was formed and adopted the name "The Association of Former Students." Since 1879 much has changed in organization and details, but the fundamental mission of The Association remains the same:

- Strengthen The Association of Former Students.
- Promote the interests and welfare of Texas A&M University.
- Perpetuate ties of affection and esteem formed in university or college days.
- Serve the Student Body.

"On days when I am feeling overwhelmed, exhausted by homework or stressed about tests, I remember that I'm not a quitter, that I'm an Aggie who has an incredible support system in her college and an Association of Former Students who once stood in my shoes. And with The Association behind me, this Aggie will not fail."

Definitions: Alumni are all former students, including those who did not earn TAMU degrees. Members with multiple degrees are represented in all decades and/or schools in which they earned their degrees. Evas, U.S. and international alumni and degree-holder counts are based on self-reported preferred address data. Number of degrees issued is greater than number of degree-holders because some students receive multiple degrees. Maps of alumni by location include former students who did not receive degrees, but do not include some former students who cannot be located.

"We are a family of individuals—the sum of the parts, greater than the parts—who are defined not by wins or losses or issues of the day, but by our character, our determination and our uncommon loyalty and devotion to our alma mater."
