James R. Woodall returns with a new book that focuses on the military service by graduates of Texas A&M University from World War I to Vietnam. Of the tens of thousands of Aggies who served in the nation's military, Woodall has selected twelve individuals who stand out as singular examples of bravery and heroism.

Each serviceman's story is told in a concise, engaging manner. While some people, such as Earl Rudder and James Hollingsworth, will be familiar to readers, Woodall introduces no less notable men and their feats, from A.D. Bruce and his march from the trenches of France and the crossing of the Rhine in World War I to Bob Acklen and his three tours in Vietnam.

Woodall also provides an extensive set of appendixes that include the relevant citations for each serviceman as well as larger lists of Aggies who were awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, Navy Cross, or Air Force Cross.

JAMES R. WOODALL '50 served in the US Army in the Korean War, Europe, Vietnam, and stateside, and is highly decorated, holding among other awards the Cross of Gallantry and the Silver Star. His final posting was as Commandant of Cadets and professor of military science at Texas A&M University. He makes his home in College Station, Texas.
