Centennial Class of 76 Gift – MSC Pillar in the new 12th Man Hall

The MSC was last renovated while we were students at Texas A&M. It is now undergoing a major renovation and is scheduled to reopen in the Spring of 2012. A new addition is the 12th Man Hall at the east end tying Joe Routt Boulevard to the Drill Field. It will be one of the most frequently traveled parts of the new MSC. At our 35th Reunion, our class voted to raise $200,000 to fund one of 12 pillars in the 12th Man Hall.

We can do it with everyone’s help!

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I donate?
You can donate on-line (see instructions on back) or by mail (see form on back).

Your pledge can be paid monthly, quarterly, annually, in one lump sum, or on any schedule that works for you.

When is my donation needed?
We need your pledge now and you can pay over three years (by December 2014).

How much should I give?
We all received so much from Texas A&M as students and it is one tangible way to give back to our great university. The amount is up to you. Every gift is important. See the box below.

Who collects my gift?
The Texas A&M Foundation (tax deductible).

What happens if we do not raise the full $200,000?
Come on, we can do it! If not, it’s back to selling Centennial Oaks!

We are making a pledge, not entering a legally binding contract. A $100,000 column in the MSC (location to be determined) would be our second choice.
