Howdy Ags!

Well another great year at the French fry booth is in the books. Lots of thanks to all who helped out. And a big horse laugh to all who could help but chose not to do so. We ended up being a little down from last year. We cleaned out the booth the Saturday after the fair.

I sincerely hope that there are some new Aggies that come to help us next year. Some of the older Ags are getting worn out.

This month our speaker is our friend Scott Jarvis. He used to be our association representative but has moved on to bigger and better things.

Remember, Whip out Ags!

Another successful West Texas Fair and Rodeo French fry booth is under our belt! Despite rain, the ice machine breaking down, and getting Blue fixed, everything ran fairly smoothly (get it – “fairly”). That includes the fightin’ Texas Aggie football team winning both weekends. Whoop!!! We were short some help on a couple of shifts, but it all worked out. I would like to thank everyone who helped out this year.

Sneak-a-peak Thursday – Laura Millican, Jacob, Bachmeyer, Henry Hahn, Bill Libby, Clay and Mel Deatherage.

Friday – Marla Hanks, Henry, Allison Cowling, Billie Schoen, Danny Holmes, Dona Holmes.

Tuesday – Billy Berny, Phillip Madeley, Carolyn Madeley, Ben Holmes, Margaret Hollowell, Allison C, Colin, Cody Dearing, Tara Ford, Stephanie Lindsey, Larry, Jackson, Shannon Eggleston, Margaret Cox, Jennifer Kadith, Kim Lewis and kids.

Wednesday – Phillip, Carolyn, Billy, Clay Williams, Janel Young, Allison C, Danny, Dona, Cody, Danny Brown, Andrew, Larry, Jackson, David, Molly, Shelley and James Hughes.

Friday -- Robert Willen, Karla Stephens, Avery Tomasco, Missy Wille, David Todd, Jane Todd, Debbie Ellis, Larry Ellis.

Whew! I am going off the sign-in sheet, so if I missed you or mangled your name, I apologize. Your help is greatly appreciated! As you can see, several people volunteered more than once. Others worked the entire day instead of just a 3 hour shift. It really is fun hanging out with other Aggies working for a good cause.

We could not do it without Roxanne Schoen handling the logistics – ordering the potatoes and other supplies, making sure the equipment works, and handling the cash. Thanks to Andrew Turnbull for organizing the clean-up. And...
Each month I attempt to come up with an interesting subject to include in this column. This month's topic I thought would be fairly easy so Google and I started work. After about 30 seconds I realized my subject was bigger than both of us. A Google search for prominent alumni of Texas A&M university resulted in a list longer than all our newsletters for the year combined. Everyone knows of Former Governor Rick Perry, singers Lyle Lovett and Roger Creager, and military giants like Earl Rudder. The list however is much longer and more notable than I imagined: former presidents of Bolivia (Jorge Quiroga-Ramirez) and Panama (Martin Torrijos), actors Rip Torn, and Ty Hardin. There are artists, doctors, heads of international companies, countless generals, medal of honor recipients, journalists, writers, college presidents, ambassadors, senators, Nobel prize winners, and several Miss Texas, and a Miss Universe finalist. The list goes on and on. Unfortunately with the good comes the bad and we also have a few criminals most notable is Wen Ho Lee '69 nuclear researcher indicted on 59 counts by a federal grand jury for stealing U.S. nuclear arsenal secrets for China. T Boone Pickens Jr attended on a basketball scholarship but transferred to Oklahoma A&M when he lost his scholarship, he didn't receive a degree from A&M. Want to see more here are a couple of websites.

The political debates are a fiasco. They also were a joke. I cannot believe these are the best candidates we could produce. I read an article on facebook that compared the candidate to Hitler’s rise to power. I wasn't really sure to which candidate the article referred. I really think that the points they made could apply to both. Pretty scary, huh?

Talk to others about this election and get them out to vote. No matter how it turns out, at least you can say that you took part.
