Aggie Muster--2018

Speaker: Stephen McGee
Former Texas A&M and Dallas Cowboys QB

Saturday, April 21, 2018    5:30 PM – 9:00 PM    Hilton NASA Clear Lake

Texas Aggies gathered together on June 26, 1883 to live over again their college days, the victories and defeats won and lost upon the drill field and classroom. The annual gathering evolved into a celebration of Texas Independence on San Jacinto Day, April 21st. Over time the tradition has changed, but its very essence has remained:

“If there is an A&M man (within 100 miles of you), you are expected to get together, eat a little, and live over the days you spent at A&M College of Texas.” Texas Aggie March 1923

Today, Muster is celebrated in more than 400 locales worldwide, with the largest ceremony on the A&M Campus in College Station.

Stephen McGee, a straight “A” student, completed his undergraduate coursework in less than four years, receiving a B.B.A in Marketing from A&M’s Mays Business School in August 2007. He completed his M.S. in Marketing at Mays in 2008.

McGee was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2009 NFL Draft in the fourth round as the 101st overall pick. He played for the Cowboys during the 2010 thru 2012 seasons. He played for the Hamilton Tigercats during the 2013-2014 seasons. Today, McGee works as a broker for Mass Mutual Financial Group of South Texas in College Station. McGee was the recipient of the Aggie Heart Award in 2009.
