Bay Area A&M Club Luncheon

“Connecting with the Aggie Network”

Speaker: Josh Reinbolt
Director, Former Student Programs

February 7, 2019 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM Hilton NASA Clear Lake

Josh Reinbolt, Class of ’99, graduated from Texas A&M University with a degree in Journalism and a minor in Business Administration. He joined the staff of The Association of Former Students in June of 2004 as a Former Student Programs Assistant.

In September of 2006, Josh was promoted to Coordinator of Class Programs and held that position until being promoted to Director of Former Student Programs in August of 2010. In this role, he oversees all programming for former students which includes Class Programs, Club Programs, Constituent Networks, Young Alumni, Away Game Activities, Muster and Traveling Aggies.

He is married to Gayla Brown Reinbolt and has a stepdaughter Madison White, Class of ’21. In his spare time, Josh is active in Freemasonry and likes to exercise, watch sports and read.

On the 7th, Josh will provide an update on the current 69,000+ student enrollment, what’s happening in Aggieland, and an overview of all programs the Association offers to former students and friends of Texas A&M. He will also swear-in/install the Bay Area A&M Club’s 2019 officers and board members.
