Bay Area A&M Club Luncheon

“The State of the CCISD and Its Future Plans”

Speaker: Dr. Greg Smith, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools
Clear Creek Independent School District

October 4, 2018  11:30 AM – 1:00 PM    Hilton NASA Clear Lake

Dr. Greg Smith is the Superintendent of Schools for the Clear Creek Independent School District, the 27th largest school district in Texas. Since taking over the superintendent role in 2008, Clear Creek ISD has consistently exceeded state, national and global student achievement standards. The school district was ranked an “A” under the Texas’ newest accountability system and has long been considered one of the highest performing Pk-12 educational institutions in Texas.

On October 4, Dr. Smith will provide the Club with an update on CCISD’s academic progress, enrollment growth, and the vision and mission to meet the needs of students of today and tomorrow.

Dr. Smith received his B.A. Degree in Elementary Education from Oakland University; his M.A. Degree in Elementary Education from University of Houston-Clear Lake; and his Doctorate in Education Administration from Texas A&M University in 2000. Dr. Smith is involved in many civic organizations throughout the community including the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership (BAHEP) and Space Center Rotary. Dr. Smith is married. He has two daughters and a granddaughter.
