Ol’ Army Feature: Lauren Schobel ’17

So how long did it take you to finish up your degree? For Lauren Schobel ’17, not long! A proud Aggie graduate at the age of 20, she was ordering her Aggie Ring before most college students had picked a major. We assume she dunked it in ice cream! Here’s some Q&A with Lauren!

Q: If you find yourself waiting with nothing but your phone, what is your go to (app, text, etc.)?

A: My go to app is Facebook. There is always something interesting whether it’s a boutique, cooking ideas, or someone’s post.

Q: Where do you work and what is your favorite part of your job?

A: Blue Bell Creameries! My favorite aspect of working at Blue Bell is the culture. Since I began working there, I realized it is huge family.

Q: What is your best memory at A&M?

A: My best memory at A&M would probably be receiving my ring. I was extremely excited to finally have my own piece of gold!

Q: What advice would you give to someone starting at A&M?

A: I would encourage a new student at A&M to learn to prioritize. If you are able to prioritize, life is much easier! You shouldn’t miss out on going out; however, you have to put an emphasis on your classwork.

Q: If you had to stick to a playlist with only three musicians on it, which three do you pick?

A: I would choose Cody Johnson, Koe Wetzel, and Randy Rogers Band.
Q: What is your favorite Aggie tradition?
A: Simply the Aggie Spirit. I have never heard of any university having a greater spirit than Aggieland. Every class began with a welcoming Howdy, where no one was a stranger. Also, the Aggie Ring is a symbol of your dedication. Once you receive your ring, you immediately realize how far you have come and how close you are to graduation.

Q: Where is your favorite place in Washington County?
A: My favorite place in Washington County is home. This is my favorite place because my dog, Koda, and I can relax. We have the option of having a lazy day, walking down to the pond, or going down the hill to watch my cousins rope.

Q: What was your New Year’s resolution?
A: My New Year’s resolution was to go to Sonic less. Unfortunately, my resolution is not going very well.

Q: If you could travel to anywhere in the world, where would it be?
A: Costa Rica. I have seen numerous pictures of the gorgeous country, so I have put that trip on my bucket list. Costa Rica has an abundance of activities that I would love to be able to enjoy.

Q: What is the last thing you watched on TV?
A: The Bachelor. I think it is a great drama. The amount of pettiness throughout the house is extremely entertaining. The idea of finding a decent husband when you’re competing against multiple women for attention is unrealistic.

Thanks and Gig’em Lauren!
