What a Muster! Speaker Dukie Childs ’53 entertained a record turnout and there was no shortage of good fellowship. Aggies from all over the county came together to talk about old times at Texas A&M, eat a little, and remember those Aggies that had departed since the 2016 Muster. Mike Hopkins Distributing provided beverage refreshments for the social hour and a BBQ meal followed (special thanks to Moosefeathers Florist for the flower decorations). After hearing from Dukie (introduced by Ran Newman) and learning a number of Ol’ Army yells, there was the roll call for the absent and a special reading of the Last Corps Trip. After Silver Taps, the Aggie Muster was adjourned until April 21, 2018.

Scholarship: Aubrey Brinkmeyer       Muster: Chris Ann Stroech
Aggie Moms: Kat Weiss

Let’s spend a little time to get to know the new WCAC officers, with a few Aggie questions.

Membership —Clint Kolby ‘09

Favorite A&M memory: Watching A&M beat t.u. 38-30 at Kyle Field during his sophomore year.

Funniest A&M memory: When he and his classmates duct-taped one of his professors to the wall for a fundraiser.

Get to know Clint: Clint married his high school sweetheart, Elizabeth, in 2010 and she is a Pre-AP and AP Physics teacher at Brenham High School. Clint has a 2 year old daughter named Catherine that attends First Baptist Church School and big yellow lab dog named Ranger. Clint has worked at the Brenham Economic Development Foundation since 2010 and is currently pursuing a law degree part-time at South Texas College of Law Houston. He will graduate in December 2017 and has plans to join a law firm in Brenham.
Family Fun Night Chair—Brooke Huckert ’03

Get to know Brooke: Brooke and her husband Darren have 4 kids keeping them on their toes and things are never boring. She works as a retirement income specialist and Darren is a civil engineer. They are thankful to have family here in town and love being back in Brenham. It's closer to A&M.

Favorite A&M memory: She has a ton! But she'd definitely say meeting Darren was her favorite. Her heart sped up when he started talking to her... she KNEW he was special!

Funniest A&M memory: Darren and his friends had a crawfish boil and some snobby girls showed up uninvited. One of his friends told them he'd make them his 'special' margarita. He threw in uncooked shrimp and crawfish in and blended it all up...served them with a smile.

Treasurer—Casey Finke ’01

Get to know Casey (center of pic): She loves to travel (NYC at Christmastime is her favorite!), spend time with her family, friends & extremely spoiled dog Nola. She has worked at Blue Bell Creameries for almost 21 years and enjoys volunteering with various organizations & committees. She counts down the days until fall because it’s most definitely her favorite time of year. She loves Aggie football & thankfully has a group of friends that do as well. They take a road trip to an away game at least once a year. So far they have been to Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss twice & this year they are headed to Florida. Despite the fact that it normally rains & we lose more often than not, they seriously have the best time.

Favorite A&M memory: She transferred to A&M as a junior in the Fall of 1999 so she was there when the bonfire collapsed in November. She will never forget the atmosphere around campus in the days & weeks to follow. We came together as a campus and grieved together, remembered together & matured together. While she would have loved to have experienced the burning of bonfire as a student, she'll never forget the memorial service they held a few days following the collapse honoring the 12 fallen Aggies.

Funniest A&M memory: Ha! That was over 16 years ago! She’s getting old & forgetful now!
