DAVE SOUTH retired in 2018 as the radio voice of Aggie football and basketball. He started as the play-by-play announcer for Texas A&M in 1985 after fifteen years with the Exxon Southwest Conference Network. During this time, he amassed a treasure trove of unforgettable stories, anecdotes, and conversations with noteworthy personalities, both on and off the field.

Dave will introduce his new book, YOU SAW ME ON THE RADIO, and share some favorite stories from the broadcast booth, locker room, and other behind-the-scenes locations. He will also have copies of his book available for purchase and autograph, with the author’s proceeds going to the WOUNDED WARRIOR PROJECT. These books will make wonderful Christmas gifts for Aggie fans!

Documentary on 1999 Bonfire to premiere in Brenham on November 15th

The upcoming documentary "The 13th Man" honors and represents all the fallen Aggies from the 1999 Bonfire tragedy. On 11/18/99 a ninety-year old tradition came to a shocking end on the campus of Texas A&M when the bonfire collapsed and killed twelve students and injured twenty-seven others. With the 20 year anniversary upon us, acclaimed filmmaker Charlie Minn decided to give the fallen Aggies a much-needed voice.

"Any story will fade after twenty years. What a documentary can do is inform, educate and remind people about the Aggies who were deeply affected by the incident. Raising awareness for the fallen Aggies, representing and honoring them on such a landmark anniversary is critical. Let’s never forget them." Minn said.

The much anticipated film "The 13th Man" opens on 11/7 at Premiere Cinemas and the Queen Theatre in Bryan for a minimum one week run. It will then open all over the state of Texas on Friday 11/15, including Westwood Cinema in Brenham.
