TO SUBMIT A NOMINATION
Although self-nominations will remain the primary means of applying for these awards, for those who might not otherwise self-nominate, the Aggie Greek Awards Selection Committee is soliciting nominations for the 2012 Fraternity and Sorority Life Awards. Seeking to recognize outstanding individuals, the selection committee welcomes students and leadership of Texas A&M University to nominate deserving individuals for these unique awards.

To nominate a student for any of the Fraternity and Sorority Life Awards, please complete the enclosed nomination form, and return it to The Association of Former Students by Monday, August 27, 2012. To be considered for these awards, nominees must:

- Have a 2.5 cumulative GPR
- Strong record of leadership in the fraternity/sorority community
- Strong record of leadership on-campus and in the local community

Upon receipt of your nomination, the Greek Former Student Network will contact and work with your student nominee to facilitate submission of the complete award application materials. Completed applications will be reviewed by the selection committee and award recipients will be notified via email.

Please see page 11 for nomination form; this is the only form the nominator is required to complete.

CORE VALUE ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Excellence Award

“Excellence stems from a great sense of pride in who we are and what we believe in.” - Former Texas A&M President Dr. Robert Gates

The Excellence Award is given to a chapter who has shown excellence in academic performance, whether consistent top rankings, significant improvement year to year, outstanding performance of new members, exceptional programming that has impacted chapter scholarship in a measurable way or significant number of 4.0 GPR students. This award will be given in both men and women’s categories.

Integrity Award

“The Aggie Code of Honor which Aggies recite by heart: 'Aggies do not lie, cheat or steal nor tolerate those that do' shows what goes to the heart of being an Aggie.” - Texas A&M Leadership

The Integrity Award is given to a chapter, officer, group of officers or an individual member who exemplifies the Aggie Code of Honor, especially in dealing with a challenging situation. The recipient shall have demonstrated behavioral choices consistent with the Aggie Code of Honor, particularly when pursuing a course inconsistent with the Aggie Code of Honor might have been the easier or more expected path.

Leadership Award

“The spirit of leadership is instilled in every student - whether they go on to lead in the boardroom or in the backyard - they have the values, the confidence and the experience to lead change in their world.” - Texas A&M Leadership

The Leadership Award is given to a chapter, officer, group of officers or an individual member who has shown extraordinary leadership to either his/her chapter or in the community.

Loyalty Award

“Through unity, strength.” - Texas A&M University Corps of Cadets Motto

The Loyalty Award is given to a chapter, officer, group of officers or an individual member whose actions have shown extraordinary loyalty to their fraternity/sorority or to Texas A&M University.
Respect Award

“Aggies treat others with dignity and respect because every person is significant.” - Richard Kardys, Class of 1967

The Respect Award is given to a chapter, officer, group of officers or an individual member whose actions have demonstrated extraordinary respect toward others.

Selfless Service Award

“A&M encourages volunteerism, encourages being one of a thousand points of light, helping others... and it comes naturally to Aggies.” - Former U.S. President George H. W. Bush

The Selfless Service Award is given to a chapter, officer, group of officers or an individual member who has shown selfless service above and beyond the chapter philanthropies.

Application Instructions

To be eligible for these awards, the following criteria must be met:

- In good academic standing as a chapter or individual
- Strong record of leadership in the fraternity/sorority community
- Strong record of leadership on-campus and in the local community
