DR. SUSAN RUDD BAILEY ’78 received a bachelor's degree in medicine and was one of seven women in the A&M College of Medicine’s charter class. As a student, she was the Student Government Association’s vice president for rules and regulations, participated in SCONA (Student Conference on National Affairs) and was a piano accompanist for the Century Singers and Aggie Players.

She is speaker of the American Medical Association’s House of Delegates and served as 2010-11 president of the Texas Medical Association, the largest state medical society in the U.S. She has been in private practice of allergy and clinical immunology at Fort Worth Allergy and Asthma Associates since 1988.

The first female former student to become a regent for The Texas A&M University System, she served on the Board of Regents from 1999 to 2005. She has served on the Board of Directors of The Association of Former Students, supported the enhancement of the Clayton W. Williams Jr., Alumni Center and has been a Muster speaker on numerous occasions, including for the Kentuckiana A&M Club, Central Arkansas A&M Club, Bell County A&M Club, Rockwall County A&M Club, Parker County A&M Club and Ellis A&M Club. She is a Diamond level member of The Association’s Century Club, with 30 years of giving.

She is an elder and a member of the Chancel Choir at University Christian Church Fort Worth, served on the Board of Directors of Casa Manana Theatre and is involved with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Her husband is Doug Bailey ’67; their children are Deborah Bailey Michell ’88, Gregory Allen Bailey ’90, Michael O’Hagan Wynn ’06 and Stephen Rudd Wynn ’10. Her grandchildren include Bailey Nicole Michell ’15 and Mason Michell ’19.

“Su is a very good friend of Texas A&M, whether cheering from her seats at football games to helping form medical policy at the AMA or in Washington, D.C. Su has never forgotten, nor will she ever forget, what Texas A&M has given her. In everything she does, whether in her daily medical practice or forging sensible and relevant medical policy, she epitomizes the A&M core values.”
