GOLF COURSES

Straits Course: Open, rugged and windswept terrain defines the walking-only, links-style Straits Course sculpted along two miles of Lake Michigan shoreline. A masterpiece in the world of golf created by Pete Dye, Straits course at Whistling Straits was ranked # 3 on Golf Digest’s 2009 Top 100 Rating.

Irish Course: Just inland from the great lake and interspersed by four meandering streams, the grassland-and-dunes aspect of the Irish is a deceivingly tranquil landscape. Both traditional and memorable, the Irish is full of unique challenges.

River Course: River course is one of the most challenging and scenic destinations in North America. GOLF Magazine says Blackwolf Run's River course "must be considered the nation's finest public-access course of modern times." River course at Blackwolf Run was ranked #16 on Golf Digest's 2009 Top 100 Rating. River course will be closed in 2010 to prepare for the 2012 U.S. Women's Open, but will reopen in 2011.

Meadow Valley Course: Professionals and amates of all skill levels can experience a day of golf like no other on the Meadow Valleys course. Described as both subtle and devilish, it winds through meadows and charges across ravines, reflecting the natural features of the Wisconsin terrain. Meadow Valleys course at Blackwolf Run was ranked #60 in Golf Digest’s ranking of America's 100 Greatest Public Golf Courses for 2011/2012. In 2012, the Original Championship course, a composite course of the River and Meadow Valleys, will host the U.S. Women's Open.
