CAPE TOWN

Soweto

Nelson Mandela, who died in 2013 at the age of 95, was imprisoned on Robben Island from 1964 to 1991. After his release, he worked to free others and promote national unity. His imprisonment continued until the end of the apartheid era, when he emerged from prison as the leader of the new, democratic South Africa. The story of his generation of admirers in late 2013, when the generation of admirers in late 2013, when the freedom fighters returned to the prison, these prisoners helped to bring attention to the injustices of apartheid. Today, former prisoners lead insightful tours of the prison. Mandela's courage and leadership in the fight for freedom won admiration throughout the world.

Cape Peninsula

In the Cape, the Garden Route is a well-frequented area, surrounded by the Cape of Good Hope and Table Mountain. The region is known for its diverse flora and fauna. This beautiful area is a great place to explore. Today, visitors can enjoy the stunning views from the top of Table Mountain. In the Cape Peninsula, you can also see many of the 507 bird species and the 114 mammal species that are native to the region. The peninsula is a part of the Cape Floral Region, which is considered to have the most diverse and unique plant life on the planet. The Cape Peninsula is also home to some of the most beautiful beaches in the world, including Beach Street, which is located right off of the Cape Peninsula. These beaches are perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and simply enjoying the natural beauty of the area.

Victoria Falls

The Victoria Falls is one of the most beautiful waterfalls in the world. It is located on the border between Zambia and Zimbabwe, and is a UNESCO World Heritage site. The falls are about 1,700 feet wide and drop 355 feet. The water crashes over the edge and creates a beautiful mist. The falls are a popular destination for both locals and tourists.

Johannesburg

In Johannesburg, you can visit the Gold Reef City, which is a gold mine that was active from 1886 to 1938. At the mine, you can see how gold was extracted from the earth and learn about the history of the mine. You can also visit the Orlando Towers, which commemorate the Soweto Uprising of 1976. The towers are a symbol of the struggle for freedom in South Africa.

Kololo

The Kololo is a small town located in the Western Bets region of South Africa. It is famous for its beautiful beaches, which are located on the coast of the Indian Ocean. The beaches are perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and simply enjoying the natural beauty of the area. The Kololo is also known for its cultures and traditions, which are a mix of African, European, and Arab influences. The town is a great place to explore the local culture and to experience the unique customs and traditions of the region.

CAPE TOWN

Dramatic views, ancient and colorful cultures, and outsize experiences all come together in this compact city. Dense with history and cutting-edge art, a warm blend of traditional and contemporary styles, Cape Town also enjoys one of the most spectacular backdrops on earth—mountains, oceans, and forests. Guests can get up close and personal with the great white shark, sail on a schooner, or simply explore the many neighborhoods and parks. And, of course, Cape Town’s prime location at the confluence of land and sea makes it a perfect launching point for a safari to the Kruger National Park or a journey to Victoria Falls.

ROBBEN ISLAND

Within sight of Cape Town, but effectively a world apart, lie the prison that held Nelson Mandela and other political prisoners during South Africa’s apartheid era. Today, Robben Island has been transformed from a place of incarceration to a poignant historical site. Guests can tour the cells and incarceration sites, learn about the lives of those who have lived there, and hear stories of those who were imprisoned here.

CAPE PENINSULA

In Cape Town, a visit to the world-famous Table Mountain and surrounding scenic splendor of the Cape Peninsula is a must-do. The Cape is where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans meet, and the ecosystem is reflected in the wildlife and plant life. Guests can admire the coast line, see huge flocks of birds, and visit the charming seaside town of Hermanus. The area is also home to the Pebble Beach, the only beach in South Africa with fine pebbles, and the Cape Point, a unique geological formation.

SOWETO

Founded by the Boers in the 19th century to house the black labor force, Soweto is a fascinating site. It is a thriving community proud of its role in ending South Africa’s apartheid era. Today, Soweto is a mix of vibrant art and culture, museums, and a vibrant nightlife. Guests can visit the Soweto Township, which is no longer just a collection of shantytowns built to house black mine workers, but a thriving community with a unique identity. The Soweto Township is home to many cultural sites, including the Orlando Stadium, the former headquarters of the Congress of South African Trade Unions (COSATU), and the Hector Pieterson Memorial Museum.

VICTORIA FALLS

Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe

With the mighty Zambezi River flowing through it, Victoria Falls is a truly spectacular natural wonder. The falls themselves are 108 meters high and 1,708 meters wide, with an average flow of 1,500 cubic meters per second. The falls are surrounded by a beautiful landscape of rainforest, and the area features a wide variety of wildlife, including elephants, giraffes, and hippos. The falls are also a popular destination for white-water rafting and bungee jumping.

Johannesburg

JOHANNESBURG

Johannesburg, or Joburg, South Africa’s financial center, is a bustling city with a rich history and a vibrant culture. It is known as the “mother city” of South Africa, and it is the largest city in the country. Johannesburg is home to the famous Johannesburg Stock Exchange, and it is also the center of the country’s diamond industry. The city is also home to a number of cultural sites, including the Johannesburg Art Gallery and the Johannesburg National Gallery. The city is also known for its nightlife, with a range of bars and clubs to choose from.
• Visit a youth center in Cape Town, and enjoy a Cape Peninsula.In South Africa's oldest and most scenic coastline with dramatic views.

• Stalk wild animals in the Thornybush Game Reserve and Nature Reserve. In Zimbabwe, feel the energy of the residents of Soweto. See South Africa's magnificent wildlife at the Cape Floral Region Protected Areas, which is considered to have the most diverse range of plant life in the world. Visit meat-eating lions and rhinoceros, Cape buffalo and giraffe, the most prized trophies. They are: the lion, elephant, black rhineCEroS, and buffalo.

• Walk in the footsteps of Nelson Mandela on Robben Island. Former President to President of the country. During each game drive, ride in an open 4x4 car with experienced guides. From Prisoner to President. What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived, but that we have breathed, that we have loved.
Stalk wild animals in South Africa’s most beautiful wildlife reserve. Cape Town and its attractions are breathtaking. Amazing sights and experiences await you! From the thrilling rush of the ride, the Atlantic Ocean glistens in a
stunning sunset, you will be amazed by the beauty of the scene.

ROBBEN ISLAND

Within sight of Cape Town, lies a history forever etched on the words of those imprisoned here. Visit the site that once held the world’s highest concentration of political prisoners, now an educational center. Today, former prisoners still guard the island, or rather, the memories of their struggle. The prison that held Nelson Mandela and other anti-apartheid activists for 18 years. It is a place where hope was spoken, and where history was made.

SOUTH AFRICA

In 1652, the Dutch East India Company established a small trading post on the Cape Peninsula, making history. In 1806, the British took control of the area, naming it Cape Colony. In 1994, Nelson Mandela was elected the first black president of South Africa, marking the end of apartheid and the beginning of a new era. Today, Cape Town is a vibrant city, combining history, culture, and modernity. It is a place where old meets new, and where tradition meets innovation.

CAPE PENINSULA

In Cape Town, you can indulge in a variety of activities. Take a ride on a cable car, enjoy a hike in Table Mountain National Park, or visit the Fisherman’s Wharf for a taste of local cuisine. Cape Town is also home to several museums and galleries, including the Victoria and Alfred Waterfront, which offers a beautiful view of the city.

Johannesburg

Johannesburg, also known as Jo’burg, is South Africa’s largest city and the economic capital of the country. It is a blend of modernity and tradition, where you can find a thriving nightlife, excellent restaurants, and top-class shopping.
