The Macy’s Thanksgiving Parade was on my bucket list and the Traveling Aggies trip was the best to achieve this dream. Everything was organized and we were left to enjoy ourselves.

This trip is the only way I would ever consider to see the Macy’s parade. This trip was magical and it was great to enjoy it with other Aggies.

Tena Gray ’79

You have once again performed your magic and made New York City a place where adults can have as wonderful a Thanksgiving and Christmas time as when we were children. Betty has seen first-hand why I was so excited about once again being with you. She loved our trip and have been raving about it to all that will listen. Once again, thank you for being you, and taking us “Beyond Group Travel.”
