A PROGRAM OF
The Association of Former Students

In Kentucky, bourbon is much more than a drink—it's a way of life. Whether you're new to bourbon or an aficionado, whether you prefer your bourbon neat or on the rocks, this trip explores all that bourbon has to offer. Discover (and taste) the true spirit of Kentucky by touring historic Bourbon Country.

Gain exclusive access to distilleries in the beautiful Kentucky countryside, learn about bourbon pairing during a Bourbon 101 event, and create custom cocktails during a private mixology course.

Tour Itinerary

FRIDAY, JUNE 3 – ARRIVAL DAY

Check into the recently renovated Galt House Hotel in Louisville. Meet SET Staff to pick up souvenirs and on-site travel documents. In the early evening, enjoy a special welcome event with an expert Bourbon Steward, Tim Knittel, featuring a Bourbon 101 orientation event with tastings, flavor pairings, and a Q&A session.

SATURDAY, JUNE 4

After breakfast at the hotel, head out into the beautiful Kentucky countryside for an exclusive Rural Bourbon Experience. During this guided tour of the renowned journey of bourbon through the ages, visit multiple historic distilleries and walk in the footsteps of generations of master distillers. Lunch is included at one of our stops.

SUNDAY, JUNE 5

Following breakfast and leisure time at the hotel, experience the new age of distilling during an Urban Bourbon Experience tour. At Louisville's most unique distillery—Angel's Envy—go behind the scenes and "Inside the Barrel" during an exclusive, all-access tour designed just for our group. Afterward, learn from a master mixologist at a private cocktail class to create a drink of your choice. Then mingle with limited-batch tastings, small plate pairings, and live entertainment—a great way to end the weekend!

MONDAY, JUNE 6 – DEPARTURE DAY

After breakfast at the hotel, check out of the Galt House Hotel, and have a safe trip home!

TIM KNITTEL

Tim Knittel is a Kentucky bourbon industry insider with over 10 years experience in bourbon education and event design. He started out at Woodford Reserve in 2009 under the dual direction of James Beard Nominated Chef Ouita Michel and Master Distiller Chris Morris with the culinary program.

In 2013 he transitioned to being the first Homeplace Host for Woodford Reserve responsible for VIP tours and tastings, and representing the brand and master distiller at the distillery.

Tim is a certified Stave & Thief Society Executive Bourbon Steward (often compared to a Bourbon Sommelier), which is the highest classification available for a professional bourbon educator. He is also the Bourbon-Steward-in-Residence at The Kentucky Castle, and an Adjunct Professor at Midway University.
