The Road Less Traveled

Gdansk, Poland

In his oft-quoted poem, "The Road Not Taken," Robert Frost awakened the idea and determination in many to choose the road less traveled; to overcome fear and avoid regrets. It sparked the quest for adventure in those wishing to experience more from life. Intrepid world travelers manifest this idea by seeking out destinations less traveled, such as Scandinavia and the Baltic Sea, in Northern Europe. Here, travelers have the rare opportunity to visit seven countries and experience a kaleidoscope of cultures in a short period of time, while cruising by ship from port to port. Ancient architecture, centuries-old history, storied landmarks, fascinating cities, and breathtaking, romantic scenery provide the perfect backdrop and opportunity to take the road less traveled, which will surely make all the difference.
