

Howdy, Ags!

From the iconic lighthouses perched along sparkling bays to Portland’s cobblestone streets boasting award-winning restaurants, Maine offers unique landscapes and experiences for everyone. Begin your journey with an overnight stay in the Boston area, followed by a city tour highlighted with historic Fenway Park. The visit to America’s oldest ballpark will bring alive past glories and history. Following some free time at Faneuil Hall Marketplace, enjoy an afternoon ride along Maine’s beautiful coastline. Later, check in to your hotel for a 5-night stay in Maine.

Day three brings us north to Portland and a Casco Bay cruise to see lighthouses, forts, lobster boats and other coastal sights. Visit the Victoria Mansion, also known as the Morse Libby House, the nation’s premier showpiece of Victorian architecture. Enjoy some time in the Old Port Historic District before heading to Cape Elizabeth for a visit to the Portland Head Lighthouse & Museum, one of America’s oldest and most photographed lighthouses.

The following day is sure to be a highlight as you explore Maine’s southern coast with its quaint seaside villages, picturesque scenery and historic mansions. In Kennebunkport, see the Wedding Cake House, an over-exuberant version of gingerbread Victorian architecture, visit the Seashore Trolley Museum and take in the view from Walker’s Point, the longtime summer retreat of George H.W. Bush and family. Later, board a working lobster boat where a local lobsterman takes you out into the harbor for a hands-on experience of the lobstering trade. The day is topped off by enjoying an authentic lobster clambake.

Enjoy a day at leisure to explore on your own, relax or join an optional excursion. As the journey comes to a close, visit the Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens filled with impressive landscapes, waterfalls and stonework with a waterfront and woodland trails all set on 270 acres. Then stop by picturesque Boothbay Harbor with its quaint shops and restaurants, long home to fishermen and sea captains. Consider joining us on this unforgettable experience, which includes airfare along with so many highlights.
